World Book Day and Author Visit

Dear Parents and Carers,

World Book Day – Thursday 6th March 2025

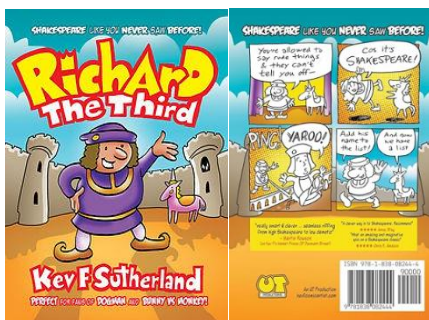

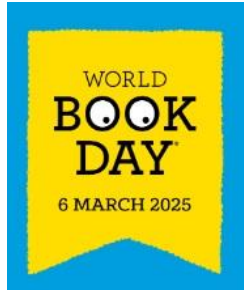

We invite the children to continue the tradition of dressing up on World Book Day, but understand that this year many families may find themselves in a difficult financial situation. We don't want our celebrations to be an additional burden so we encourage the use of items you already have in your household. We would also like your child to bring in their favourite book or a book that means something to them for discussion in class at some point in the day. Each class will run its own competition for the best costume. The winner will receive a prize.

As always, your child will receive a free £1 book token which can be taken to your nearest book shop and swapped for a World Book Day book or can be used as £1 off any book costing £2.99 or more. You can find your nearest bookseller at www.worldbookday.com/participating-retailers Check out the World Book Day Family Hub for more things to do at home.

Author Visit - Kev Sutherland the comic book artist

This year we have been fortunate enough to secure an author visit from Kev Sutherland – he will be visiting the school on Wednesday 5th March to run an assembly and complete a workshop with some children.

Having previously drawn comics for Beano and Marvel, Kev moved on to creating his own comic book stories. His most famous comic book is Richard the Third, an adaption of Shakespeare's play. A signed copy can be purchased at a cost of £7 either in advance on parent pay to guarantee your order or on the day on a first come, first served basis. His book is perfect for fans of Dogman & Bunny Vs Monkey!

Thank you for your continued support

Miss Cooper
