

How to use to use the BLOG feature

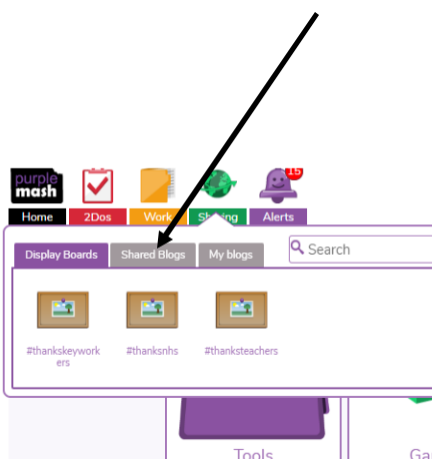

1. Long on to Purple Mash

2. Click on the sharing button

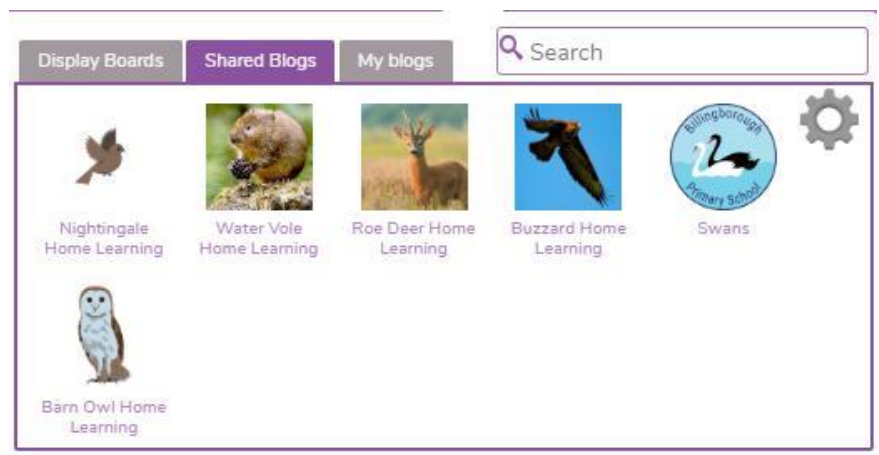

3. Click on the "shared blogs"

4. Select the blog you want to access

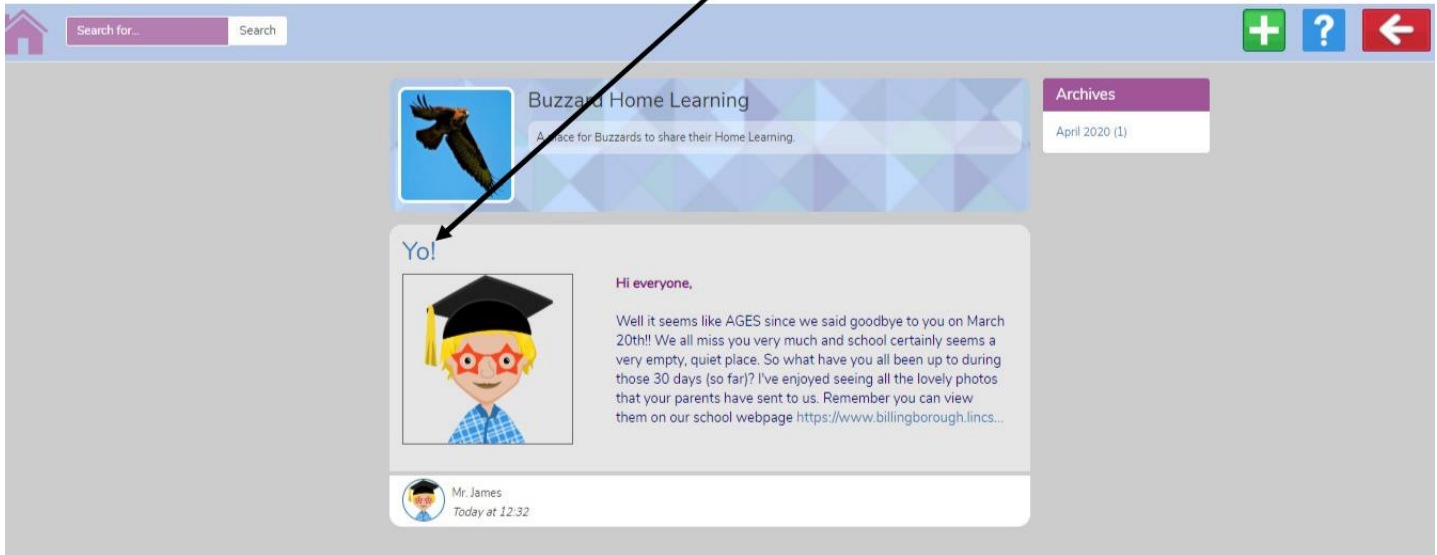

Your child will only be able to see blogs for their class or year group.

How to use to use the BLOG feature

5. Click on the blue title of blog you want to reply to.

6. Scroll to the bottom and this is where your child (or adult if helping child), can post a comment. A member of staff will need to approve the post before it is visible to the rest of the class.

7. If you want to write a brand new post and upload photos or documents, do the following. Click on the white cross in the green box.

Write your post, attach and then click save. Like replies you submit, to begin with they will say 'Not approved', but once a member of staff has checked it, it will become approved.

IMPORTANT

Please make sure that children are aware of how to act when talking online to their peers. Please make sure that children are respectful to each other at all times.

Any misuse of the Blog could mean that a child is blocked from posting on the Blog until a staff member has spoken to the parent.

The Purple Mash Blog can be used for general chat.

(PLEASE DO NOT USE THE TEAMS POSTS AREA FOR GENERAL CHAT. TEAMS IS FOR HOMEWORK TALK ONLY. THIS HELPS KEEP THE POSTS SECTION OF TEAMS EASIER TO FIND INFORMATION TO DO WITH HOMEWORK).