

Holyport College, a vibrant state boarding school, partnered with Eton College.

Set in leafy Berkshire, we are just minutes from Heathrow and boast excellent transport links to London.

Holyport College combines a rigorous academic curriculum with a dynamic and diverse range of co-curricular activities, ensuring our students excel both in and out of the classroom.

Our flexible boarding options mean students can choose to return home on weekends or stay with us to fully immerse themselves in our enriching activity program.

Experience the unique atmosphere of Holyport College firsthand—book a spot at one of our upcoming open evenings and see why our school is the perfect place for your child's educational journey!
